The Identity of Democracy North & South

From the Special Report to the Cip'ti Gazette. There was a large gathering of the citisens of Dearborn county, Indiana, at Law renceburg, Friday evening, to listen to the first speech ever made by the Hou. Henry S. Lane at that place. Every part of the the Odd Fellows' Hall, in which he spoke, was densely crowded.

When Mr. Lane arrived in the city, he was met by a committees of reception and conducted to his temporary lodging, all the while a cannon firing a salute of welcome. During the afternoon he was visited by quite a number of citizene, and general congratulations passed upon the bright prospects of the Republican party in this campaign.

During the speaking there were manifested evidences of great satisfaction and equal enthusiasm. Applause was freely and frequently bestewed, and at the conlingering hope that the speaker might con- bil tinge, albeithe had already been induced to extend his remarks beyond the !limits made at the same place, and all of that be ing now matter, we spend a report there-

THAT IMMACULATE RECORD EXAMINED.

Speaking of the Democratic record, he referred to the failure of the Appropriation Bills in 1857-8, and was severe up in Gov. Willard for sending to their distant homes the inmates of the State institutions. Why did he not pay them before he sent those patients home? No democrat will have the audacity to say that there was an Approprintion Bill passed between the time your Democratic Governor sent those poor and homeless wanderers to the counties whence them back to the acylums at Indianapolis. Why did he not pay them over before?-

those pour outcasts, friendless and homeless, for whom your benevolence has provided retreats and asylums at Indianapoles. They might be lieft secure from the influparty, headed by a Demogratic Governor, turning those poor outcast upon the chill ing charities of an unthinking world, for the purpose of saying. Lot behold the Repoor blind child, who has never looked upon the glories of the noonday sun, or glanced toward or in a mother's face, is sent in rayless light to wander a stranger in very night and darkness over the face of the State. For what noble purpose is this? deaf and dumb, who have never listened to the voice of father or mother, or haped the name of home or friends, are sent forth to wander. Why? Simply because the Demecratic party wishes to make a point against the Republicans. The poor insane -the raving maniac, from whom the light of reason has entirely been excluded—that poor, friendless, homeless, wandering manise is sent back to the counties at your expense, and returned again as your expense. Why? Because Gov. Willard says the Republican party has not passed the appropriation bill, while in his next message he expressly says there is plenty of money in the treasury, and he has returned them to the asylums.

at the next October election. (Immense)

What becomes of all this mist and unthat failure? Gov. Willard says the result was that there was not money in the treas breath he says there was plenty of money. and that it was his duty to apply it, and brought back more than twelve months be fore another Legislature met.
